1. The threat was sustained by a person who at the time was committing a crime or offense upon the owner or custodian of the animal;
 2. The threatened person was tormenting, abusing, assaulting, or physically threatening the animal or its offspring;
 3. The injured, threatened, or killed companion animal was attacking or threatening to attack the animal or its offspring; or

It shall be the duty of the owner of such exempted dog to notify the Administrator of their current location and/or any change of address. In the case of a sentry or guard dog, the owner shall keep the Administrator advised of the location where such dog will be stationed. The Administrator shall provide police and fire departments with a categorized list of such exempted dogs, and shall promptly notify such departments of any reported address changes.
- E. The State's Attorney of the county in which a dangerous dog or other animal exists may file a complaint in the name of the people of the State of Illinois to prohibit all persons from owning or maintaining such an animal, and to prohibit the owner of such dog or other animal from permitting same to leave his premises when not under control by leash or other recognized control methods. Upon the filing of a complaint in the circuit court, the court, if satisfied that this nuisance may exist, may grant a preliminary injunction prohibiting the defendant from maintaining such a nuisance. If the existence of the nuisance is established, the owner of such dog or other animal shall be in violation of this act, and in addition, the court may enter an order restraining the owner from maintaining such nuisance and may order that such dog or other animal be humanely disposed of.

Section 18. DANGEROUS ANIMAL: LEASH

- D. Within thirty (30) days after the final order has been entered, the owner may petition the circuit court to reverse the designation of dangerous animal.

Section 20. VICIOUS ANIMAL

In order to have an animal deemed "Vicious," the Administrator, his/her designee, animal control officer, or law enforcement officer must give notice of the infraction that is the basis of the investigation to the owner, conduct a thorough investigation, interview any witness, including the owner, gather any existing medical records, veterinary medical records or behavioral evidence, and make a detailed report recommending a finding that the animal is a Vicious animal and give the report to the States Attorney's Office. The Administrator, or his/her designee, shall determine where the animal shall be confined during the pendency of the case.

A dog shall not be declared vicious if the court determines the conduct of the animal was justified because:

1. The threat, injury, or death was sustained by a person who at the time was committing a crime or offense upon the owner or custodian of the animal, or upon the property of the owner or custodian of the animal;
2. The injured, threatened, or killed person was tormenting, abusing, assaulting, or physically threatening the animal or its offspring, or has in the past tormented, abused, assaulted, or physically threatened the animal or its offspring; or
3. The animal was responding to pain or injury, or was protecting itself, its owner, custodian, or member of its household, kennel, or offspring.

Section 21. VICIOUS ANIMAL – CONFINEMENT. CONTROL. IMPOUNDMENT

- A. If an animal is found to be a vicious animal, the animal shall be spayed or neutered within 10 days of the finding at the expense of its owner and microchipped, if not already, and is subject to enclosure. An animal found to be vicious shall not be released to the owner until the Administrator, his/her designee, or an Animal Control Officer approves the enclosure. No owner or custodian of a vicious animal shall sell or give away the animal without court approval. Whenever an owner of a vicious animal relocates, he or she shall notify both the Administrator of the county Animal Control where he/she has relocated and the Administrator of the County Animal Control where he/she formerly resided.
- B. It shall be unlawful for any person to keep or maintain any animal which has been found to be a vicious animal unless the animal is kept in an enclosure. The only times that a vicious animal may be allowed out of the enclosure are:
1. if it is necessary for the owner or keeper to obtain veterinary care for the animal;
 2. in the case of an emergency or natural disaster where the animal's life is threatened, or
 3. to comply with the order of a court of competent jurisdiction, provided that the animal is securely muzzled and restrained with a leash not to exceed six (6) feet in length, and shall be under the direct control and supervision of the owner or keeper of the animal or muzzled in its residence.
- C. Any animal which has been found to be a vicious animal and which is not confined to an enclosure shall be impounded by the Administrator having jurisdiction in such area. If the owner of the animal has not appealed the impoundment order to the Circuit Court in the county in which the animal was impounded within fifteen (15) working days, the animal may be euthanized. Upon filing a notice of appeal, the order of euthanasia shall be automatically stayed pending the outcome of the appeal. The owner shall bear the burden of timely notification to Animal Control in writing.
- D. Guide dogs for the blind or hearing impaired, support dogs for the physically handicapped, and sentry, guard, or police-owned dogs are exempt from this Section; provided, an attack or injury to a person occurs while the dog is performing duties as expected. To qualify for exemption under this Section, each such dog shall be currently inoculated against rabies in accordance with this Ordinance. It shall be the duty of the current owner of such exempted dog to notify the Administrator of changes of address. In the case of a sentry or guard dog, the owner shall keep the Administrator advised of the location where such dog will be stationed.
